push buttons

Controls for electrical functions on board

Our tried and tested push button panels can also be used to control non-Reckmann components. The robust installation frame, which is made from anodised aluminium, gives the waterproof industrial switches the support they require. The buttons can be equipped with up to three functions (opened, closed and lighting module).

push buttons